

INFANT NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2024

Hello everyone and welcome to December. I hope everyone had a great time celebrating thanksgiving with their families and friends. I know here in the classroom we had a lot to be thankful for this year, for example there are seven smiling faces we get to see daily that makes us extra thankful. We have a lot of different types of fun planned for the babies this month. Consisting of different activities, crafts, and more.

We are finally a month in of all the babies being together, and they have slowly started to adjust to the environment and one another.

With the colder weather coming, as we get further into Winter that means, weaker immune systems, and more germs. It's extremely important for the sick policy to be followed by all the families in the infant room. If you would like a copy, we can get you one. Our goal is to keep the infants healthy and happy. The best way to do this is for everyone to play their part so that others aren't affected.

Now I know with breaks, holidays, and sicknesses that will occur during this upcoming month, it is very important to let one of us know if your child will or won't be attending one day. We ask this because it helps with our staffing, and if we're told so many children won't be in attendance on a specific day, then we might have less teachers, so it's extremely important to let us know if something changes.

Important Dates:

December 24, 2024: Closed for Christmas Eve.

December 25, 2024: Closed for Christmas.

We want to remind all the parents to bring in appropriate changes of clothes to put in their tubs. Once again please watch out for the signs and symptoms of different illnesses, so that we can eliminate the germs in the classrooms and keep the babies happy and healthy. If something is happening with your child, please let us know, whether it is teething, irregular sleeping, or anything else that may help us understand what's going on so we can provide better care for your child. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact Ms. Jewel or Ms. Teresa. Happy Holidays!

Thank you,
